STAY IN Córdoba

A 72-hour journey through the heart of a fascinating city

Living an unforgettable experience in Córdoba is possible and we tell you how.

Discover the secret to enjoying yourself without rushing (and without missing anything).

Introduction

6 curiosities about Cordoba

The Athens of the West

This was how Córdoba was known in the Caliphate era. It came to have 400,000 books in the Library of Al-Hakim II.

Olive oil from Montoro

It is one of the oldest in Spain. In Roman times it was used for religious rituals.

World Heritage Site

Córdoba has the highest concentration of buildings declared World Heritage Sites by UNESCO.

The Wishing Star

A surprising marine fossil is embedded in Torrijos Street. It is said that touching it brings good luck.

Like a movie

The city has been the setting for various audiovisual productions, one of the most famous being Game of Thrones.

A magical corner

The Plaza de Capuchinos is crowned by the Cristo de los Faroles, offering an overwhelming image.

DAY 1: From the splendor of the Caliphate to the magic of flamenco

Enter a world where time seems to stop.

Today you will discover the greatness of Caliphate Cordoba, you will lose yourself among centuries-old courtyards and you will end the day letting yourself be enveloped by the soul of flamenco.

Breakfast

Start your day with a leisurely breakfast at Patio del Posadero. Specialty coffee, sourdough bread and cold-pressed natural juice will give you the energy to explore the city.

Mosque

It is impossible to start any other way: A World Heritage Site and one of the most important buildings of Umayyad art, the Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba is a unique architectural jewel in the world.

Lunch at the Hermitage of La Candelaria

A charming restaurant that offers the opportunity to try the cuisine of our landscapes: products from the mountains of Cordoba, from the rich orchards of the Genil and Guadalquivir await you in the company of the wines of Montilla Moriles.

Alcazar of the Christian Kings

After replenishing your energy, it's time to continue delighting your senses in a place of extraordinary beauty. The different rooms of this fortress and palace are arranged around courtyards with exotic flowers, aromatic herbs and leafy trees that will transport you to distant times.

Dinner at Bodegas Campos

Just a 5-minute walk away is one of the city's most iconic spaces, which has been open since 1908. You'll love its interior, made up of a fascinating collection of old Cordoban houses and courtyards, and its menu, with traditional products and dishes of the highest quality.

Cardenal tablao

An undisputed point of reference for Cordoba flamenco, it offers you a unique opportunity to enjoy an authentic and passionate show. In an intimate atmosphere, the footwork, clapping and singing come together to create an evening that awakens the senses. A unique way to end your first day in Cordoba.

DAY 2: Between gardens, horses and melodies

A day to immerse yourself in the beauty of Medina Azahara, be captivated by the majesty of the Andalusian horse and discover corners where the three cultures that forged the essence of Córdoba coexist in harmony.

Breakfast

A new day is dawning before you, so it's time to enjoy a comforting breakfast made with selected artisanal products. Have you already tried our freshly baked biscuits? They are a must. Lisa prepares them with care and the best seasonal ingredients.

Medina Azahara

A few kilometres from Córdoba, among the hills, rise the ruins of what was once the most splendid palace city of the Caliphate of Córdoba. A witness to the Umayyad grandeur, which will take you back in time through its gardens and archaeological remains.

Lunch at Tavern No. 10

It's time for a break. Our suggestion? A cozy tavern in the heart of Córdoba where you can enjoy a menu full of traditional recipes in a most authentic atmosphere. A place where the Cordovans stop before continuing with their daily tasks.

Synagogue

Did you know that the synagogue of Cordoba is one of the few that still exists in all of Spain? Built in the 14th century and unique in Andalusia, it invites you to be enchanted by its Mudejar decoration and its beautiful arches decorated with plasterwork.

St. Basil's Courtyards

Just a 7-minute walk away is the original San Basilio neighborhood. Its colorful traditional courtyards and ethnographic museum offer the opportunity to experience the essence of Córdoba first hand. Observe. Feel. Enjoy.

Royal Stables

Created in 1570, the Royal Stables were the perfect setting for Philip II's project to give life to one of the best breeds in history: the Purebred Spanish Andalusian Horse. Discover it in a space full of character.

Equestrian Show

The activities of this second day could only end in one way: with the equestrian show “Pasión y Duende del Caballo Andaluz” (Pasión and Duende of the Andalusian Horse). A stunning show that will allow you to experience the essence of flamenco in a historic setting that will leave you breathless. Get ready to feel the fire of Andalusia running through your veins.

Dinner at Amaltea

Let's change the scene! Today's recommendation for dinner is Amaltea, a unique and cozy restaurant that focuses on sustainable Mediterranean cuisine with the most creative vegan and vegetarian dishes. A relaxed place, ideal for settling everything you've experienced so far.

DAY 3: Between noble art and caliphal pleasures

The perfect end to your stay: a day that combines the elegance of Cordoba palaces with the relaxation of Arab baths, culminating in a gastronomic experience that will delight your senses.

Breakfast

The morning light filters through the patio as you enjoy your last breakfast. A moment of calm to savour every detail. Which one will you choose today? Whichever one, one thing is certain: your day will start with a smile.

Viana Palace

Discover the most relevant and best preserved stately home in Córdoba. Open to the public for more than 40 years, it offers a collection of furniture and works of art that span more than 5 centuries. Can you imagine living here? Let's dream.

Archaeological Museum

Founded in 1868, this museum presents pieces spanning from Prehistory to the Late Middle Ages. Focusing on Córdoba as a paradigm of fusion, interculturality and tolerance, it offers a beautiful opportunity to learn to read the DNA of Andalusia.

Lunch in Regadera Restaurant

With a chic style, the kitchen at La Regadera is a work of craftsmanship led by Adrián Caballero. A beautiful restaurant with a creative menu in which to lose yourself.

Hammam

And now, after these intense days, it's time to relax and let yourself be pampered like a true caliph: Enjoy relaxing baths and massages in an atmosphere that will remind you of 1001 nights. The perfect prelude to a dinner under the stars.

Dinner in the stars

What better way to end these 3 days than with the magic of haute cuisine. Noor or Choco? Both will allow you to discover the taste of Córdoba's history through careful presentations and surprising pairings.
